Haugh finished the game with 17 points on 5-of-9 shooting, including a 3-for-6 mark from 3-point territory.

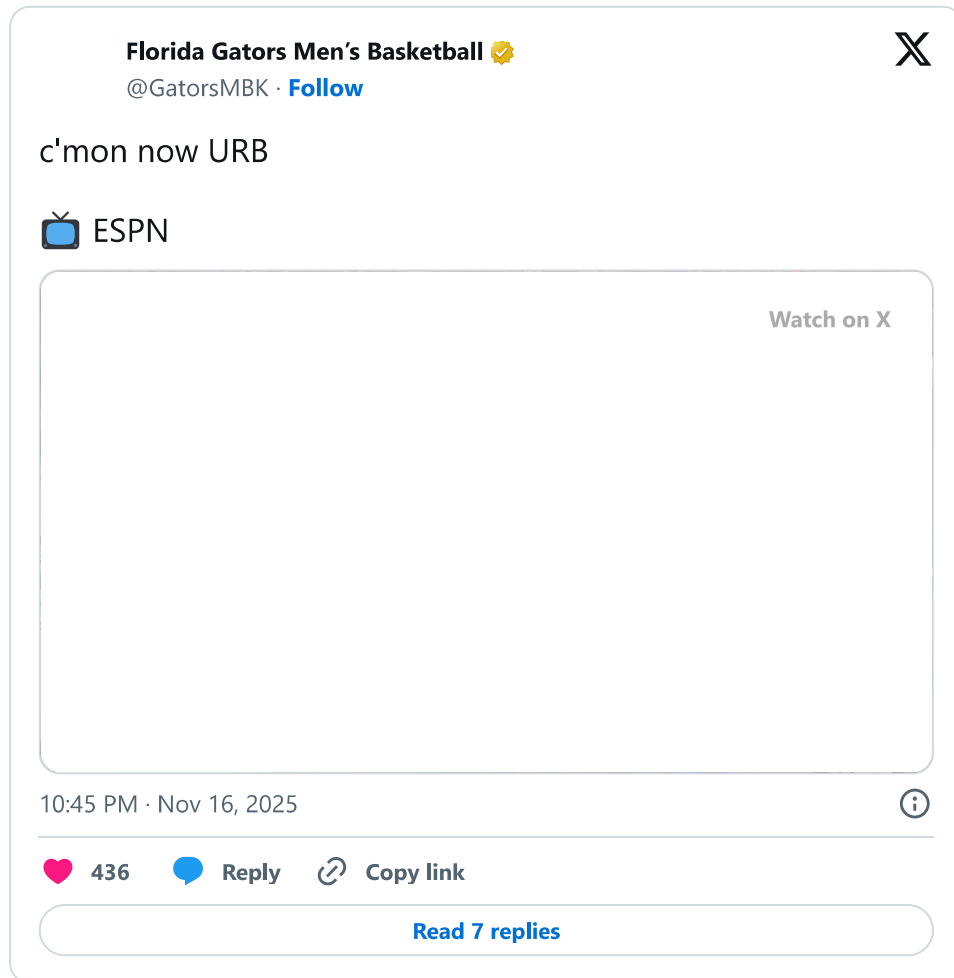

After the Hurricanes took a 13-12 lead with under 14 minutes left in the first half, the Gators never looked back as Condon (15 points) and Haugh (eight points) combined for 23 of Florida's 39 points to take a 10-point lead into the locker room.

Condon hit two 3-pointers in the frame, while Haugh hit a 3-pointer in the final seconds of the half to extend the Gators' lead to double digits.

Miami surged back early in the second half by using a 7-0 scoring run to make it 44-41 in favor of Florida, but the Gators regained firm control of the game with a pair of 3-pointers from Klavzar and an and-one from Haugh to make it 62-49 with under nine minutes left.

Haugh added another 3-pointer with 7:50 left to give Florida a 67-50 lead, and Klavzar hit his fourth 3-pointer with 2:02 left to make the score 79-63.

Meanwhile, Miami only made five field goals across the final 10 minutes of the second half (5-for-20).

Hurricanes forward Malik Reneau, a former Florida commit under then-head coach Mike White, led Miami with 22 points on 8-of-23 shooting with 11 rebounds. The Gators held the Hurricanes to 22.9 percent shooting from the field, and Miami shot 55.6 percent from the field.
